Ambitious Juniors Prepare To Assume Lead... Lay Firm Foundation For Future Leading Roles.

It is safe to say that the most ambitious group in the school is the junior class. Members of this class worked extremely hard on the magazine drive and, as a result, came out in first place. As a reward, 25 per cent of the net sales, $156.60, was added to an already large treasury.

As a further means of raising funds, girls in the class sold shakers at the football games. In November they sponsored a most successful Junior Prom.

Many participated in sports. Included among the boys who went out for both football and basketball are Dave Curran, Dave Cammett, Steve Crane, Kenny Billings, and Bill Corley.

Girls who participated in the intramural program are Bonny Clapp, Barbara Bradley, Cindy Radack, Cindy Ridley, Sue Eldridge, Marcia Imbeault, Marcia Parady, Linda Jorgensen, Nancy Manning, Mary Knox, and Evelyn Jennings.

The class also did well academically. Nancy Manning and Evelyn Jennings made the high honor roll for the first quarter, and Joan Hinckley, Marcia Imbeault, Scott Tobiason, Mary Knox, Ted Manning, Sue Mollison, Linda Jorgensen, and Steve Crane made the honor roll with an average of 80 per cent.

It is certain that with the ambition and drive displayed by this class in the past that their final performance should be a history-making one and well worth observing.

Sophomores Attain New Status In Drama

Second Year Students Show Great Promise For The Future

Largest class in the school, the sophomores number forty-eight. Advisors for this group are Mr. Field and Miss Dobens.

The class is well represented academically with six students on the high honor roll for the first quarter, including Raynor Kenison, Nancy Barnett, Carol Porter, Elizabeth Burton, Robert Davis, and Thomas Goodwin. Students attaining a B average are Gail Silva, Judith Young, Helga Delvik, and Joseph Hyland.

Total sales for the magazine drive amounted to $357 with the class taking fourth place. The class plans to make a better show next year. Top salesman was Raynor Kenison.

Many boys represented the sophomore class in both football and basketball. Included on the football team are Laurie McCoy, Michael Backry, Jackie Gleason, Gene McDonough, Warren and Calvin Heath, and Milton Notman, with Gardner Bullock and Robert Baxter serving as managers. Five boys from this class made the varsity basketball team: Laurie McCoy, John Purington, Joseph Hyland, Brian Lane, and Thomas Goodwin.

Many of the girls went out for intramural and did very well. Gail Silva and Nancy Barnett made the junior varsity cheerleading squad, with Nancy as the captain.

As Story goes to press, tentative plans are being made for a Valentines dance. Students hope that these plans materialize and that the dance is a great success.

Young, Eager, Willing To Learn Freshmen

Now Fully Accepted As Part Of The Story Scene

Thirty-seven new, eager students entered Story High School for the first time on September 4, 1958. Advisors for the group are Mr. Zani and Mr. Schlegel. It was not too long before these young people became a familiar and accepted part of the Story scene.

They got off to a flying start by proving themselves academically within the first few months. On the high honor roll for the first quarter were Harry Hull, Ann Cooper, David Cressey, Jean Emslie, Uldis Delvik, Donna Purington, and Linda Rhodes. Alan Rice made the B honor roll.

These freshman are well represented in sports with Elliot Crocker and Peter Foster on the varsity basketball team. Junior varsity members include Bill Gates, Hardy Nally, Alex Backry, and Elliot Crocker.

In the magazine drive the freshmen came in second. They received 15 per cent of the net receipts, which resulted in an addition to their treasury of $93.96. High salesmen in this group were Hardy Nally and Alex Backry.

These newcomers have faithfully supported all school functions and should prove a credit to Story High School in the years to come.

PREPARING FOR FUTURE ROLES

Three training programs are available for all students depending on the type of role the student plans to assume after graduation. These programs include the college, business, and general course.

ary members of the Manchester
Women's Club for the year.

Science Award
Edward Gillfillan
Ed receives the Science Award as the outstanding student at Story in the field of science.

LEISURE TIME OFFSTAGE

Many extra-curricular activities are offered to the young students to provide entertainment and relaxation during leisure time. These activities not only stimulate interest but also help produce well-rounded citizens.

Yearbook Staff Gleefully Checks Final Copy

Work on the '59 yearbook was begun early in September by eight staff members under the direction of Mrs. Genewich.

Work continues unabated until the deadline date of February 15 as staff members work on the dummy, scurry around digging up information for writeups, pose for pictures.

The staff's goal is to produce a yearbook worthy of another first-place certificate when judged by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association next fall.

The staff further hopes that the book meets with the approval of the students and faculty and will prove a source of enjoyment for many years to come.

Student Council President Leads Discussion

Composed of three representatives from the Senior class and two representatives from each of the other classes, the Student Council is a representative body active in planning and sponsoring many school functions.

The group meets frequently to discuss current problems, to make important suggestions regarding school policy and activities.

The members express the views of their respective classes and in this way are able to apply the principles of democratic government to their school life.

The council planned and sponsored dances during the football and basketball season.

SEATED, Left to Right: D. Cammett, D. Curran, H. Nally, L. Brissette, P. Tilton, W. Laskowski. STANDING: P. Foster, T. Goodwin, L. McCoy.

Officers for the 1958-59 season are William Laskowski, president; Laurie McCoy, vice president; Louise Brissette, secretary-treasurer.

Nancy Manning Argues For The Affirmative

One of the busiest clubs this year has been the Debating Club. At their first meeting early in October they elected the following officers: Edward Gilfillan, president; Evelyn Jennings, vice-president; Nancy Manning, secretary; Mary Ellen Knox, treasurer; and Betty Lou Crocker, librarian. Other members include Susan Mollison, Judy Christensen, and Marcia Parady.

Since the first meeting the club has been busy learning the rudiments of debating under the expert guidance of Mrs. Miller.

The club has debated on two occasions with students from Gloucester High School. The first debate was held at Story on October 1, on the resolution, "All testing of atomic weapons should be banned."

The second debate was held in Gloucester on December 18, on the resolution, "Communist China should be admitted to the United Nations."

Director Demonstrates A Point

Though the students of Story High have presented and enjoyed successful plays each year, for the first time a formal group has been formed to study and experiment with the theater arts. This group is under the supervision of Mr. Purpel, director of school plays for the past two years.

The club is planning to present several short plays and will be instrumental in selecting and presenting the annual school play.

Although the club is small, it is hoped that it will take roots and become a permanent organization at Story.

French Club Plans Successful Program

For the first time in four years a French Club was organized in September under the direction of Miss Dobens. The fourteen members of the club chose at their officers Judy Christensen, president; Cintra Morgan, vice president; Susan Mollison, secretary; and Evelyn Jennings, treasurer. Nancy Manning serves as the program director, and Mary Knox is in charge of publicity.

Early in the year the club ran a successful food sale and Miss Dobens won the beautifully decorated cake that was raffled. The club also sponsored an assembly at which slides of famous landmarks of France were shown.

Science Club Watches Experiment

A science club was organized in the fall under the direction of Mr. Edwards and Mr. Zani. This active group, composed of sixteen science-minded students, meets once a week on Thursdays.

The primary aim of the group is to prepare projects for the science fair, which takes place at the Memorial School in March. Members of the club also become acquainted with the uses of the visual aid equipment.

Future field trips are planned and various science kits will be constructed.

Bob Davis leads the group as president, with David Cressey, vice president; Corliss Lockwood, secretary; and Harry Hull, treasurer.

STANDING, Left to Right: Mr. Zani, J. Hyland, R. Davis, R. Kenison, M. Notman, C. Lockwood, H. Springer, D. Cressey, E. Gilfillan, Mr. Edwards.

STUDENTS BECOMING PROFICIENT WITH SLIDE RULE

Under the capable direction of Mr. Schlegel, the Slide Rule Club has diligently applied its time to the solution of problems in multiplication, division, square roots, and trigonometric functions.

In addition, the club has tackled many of the formal proofs in connection with the theory of number and algebra. The club meets once a week on Tuesday afternoons.

Regular members of the club include Phyllis Snow, Rayner Kenison, Milton Notman, Joanne Elso, Ted Manning, Calvin Heath, Alan Rice, and Uldis Delvik.

GLEE CLUB LINES UP TO SMILE FOR PHOTOGRAPHER

The first formal concert of the 1958-59 season was given at the December meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association under the capable direction of Miss Jane O'Brien, Director of Music. This fine program of Christmas music was enjoyed by the capacity audience which attended.

The group is composed of students from all four classes and this year included several male members.

When not preparing for a special program, the members enjoy themselves by singing a variety of old and new songs, listening to portions of fine record albums, recording their voices on the tape recorder and listening to the results.

EDITORS INSPECT HISTORIC FIRST EDITION OF NEWSPAPER

The "Masconomo," a quarterly newspaper, reached the newstands for the first time in December. This fine product was the work of the ambitious members of the Newspaper Club who learned through experience the trials and tribulations of publishing a newspaper.

With Nancy Manning as editor-in-chief, the staff had the additional task of raising funds to finance the project. Funds were raised by cake sales and individual subscriptions.

Highlighting each publication is the selection of the two outstanding students of the quarter, each student to be selected on the basis of school spirit, scholastic achievement, and citizenship. This honor for the first quarter went to Gail Burton and Dave Curran.

HIGH SCHOOL.

THE CURTAIN RISES

There is lots of activity and excitement around the theatre as actors and directors prepare for such important events as the junior prom, play, and graduation.

Junior Prom First Formal Of The '59 Season

J. Lazisky, K. Billings, N. Manning, S. Crane, C. Porter, T. Manning, C. Ridley, and D. Cammett join arms for the grand march.

Laughter and music dominated the Memorial School gym on the night of the junior prom, November 7, 1958. After the grand march, which was led by Dave Cammett and Cynthia Ridley, the young ladies in their formal gowns escorted by the gentlemen dressed in their Sunday best, passed through the receiving line to greet their chaperones.

Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Billy Rich and his Millionaires. The Oriental theme was carried out by a backdrop of Oriental design with a lovely Japanese pagoda at one end of the gym.

Junior class advisors, Mr. Edwards and Mrs. Miller, devoted much time and encouragement to the proceedings, so that the evening resulted in a very happy and memorable one for those who attended.

Cynthia Ridley shakes hands with Mr. & Mrs. Place and Mr. & Mrs. Austin as she starts through the receiving line.

Dancers join hands as they prepare to change partners.

Curtain Rises On Dramatic Presentation Of "Twelve Angry People"

N. Manning, C. Eyberse, D. Olson, L. Spoerry, J. Dermody, M. Lane, D. Curran, E. Gilfillan, S. Drew, L. Forss, J. Johnson, and J. Carroll keep the audience spellbound as the play nears the climax.

On Friday, May 23, 1958, the curtain rose on a dramatic performance of "Twelve Angry People," a play in three acts written by Reginald Rose.

The setting of the play is a jury room in which twelve jurors are trying to decide the fate of a young boy being tried for the murder of his father. Suspense and tension mounts throughout the drama until the thrilling and surprising climax.

Under the fine direction of Mr. Purpel and with the excellent work of the cast, the play was a smash hit.

Behind the scenes Mary Emslie acted as stage manager. Miss Dobens, Miss Chorebanean, and Mrs. Hardy were responsible for the excellent makeup job.

C. Eyberse, D. Olson, L. Spoerry, and M. Lane listen attentively as J. Dermody expresses a rather definite opinion.

L. Forss takes the floor as E. Gilfillan, S. Drew, D. Curran, and J. Johnson look on.

Last Year's Crop Of Stars At Farewell Performance

Members of the Class of 1958 await final recognition.

Farewell performance for the class of 1958 took place at the Memorial School on Friday evening, June 13, as the seniors marched into the auditorium led by William Laskowski, Class Marshal.

The Rev. John J. Connell gave the invocation and addresses were delivered by honor students Janice Carroll, Kerry Crane, and Harriet Goldthwaite.

The Glee Club rendered several fine selections including "Benediction," "A Graduation Prayer," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Mr. Robert Place, Principal, presented the awards and introduced the new members of the Honor Society. Mr. Danielson, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Frank L. Kirby, Chairman of the School Committee, presented the diplomas.

The reception was held on the same evening in the gymnasium of the Memorial School. The gym was decorated in blue and white with the theme of "Music in the Air." It was a fitting end to four wonderful years.

President, Dan Curran, receives his diploma from Mr. Frank Kirby, Chairman of the School Committee.

Dan Curran and date, Lucille McDonough, with Tom Mercer and Sandra Emerton, lead the grand march.

Break In The Day's Arduous Rehearsals

C. Winsten, L. Jorgensen, C. Lockwood, C. Morgan, B. Bradley line up for lunch at the Memorial School cafeteria.

L. Brissette, P. Lee, R. Bennett, and P. Kaiser finally relax at lunchtime.

Some of the cast gathering props for the next class.

The five-minute break finds J. Purington, D. Wykes, A. Kershaw, and G. Bullock discussing the day's events.

Typical Busy Day At Story High

Sue Eldridge and Dave Curran are busy at work during morning class.

Beth Bradley selects her dessert as she passes by the lunch counter.

Joanne Elso rushes to her locker during the five-minute break.

Jean Emslie is about to sit down and enjoy her lunch.

C. Ridley and D. Cammett lead the grand march with C. Porter and S. Crane close behind.

Gail Silva points with pride to the graph showing the magazine sale results.

Hornets Win Four Straight, Drop Three

Four wins and three losses was the final count for the 1958 football season.

The team led off with four straight victories. The first victory was over Harvard, 19-0. The second game was an upset over favored Topsfield, 38-23. Georgetown was the next victim and the first game played on home ground. The fighting Green and White won this contest with a 44-6 win avenging the only loss of the previous year. The second home game was another resounding victory, 39-13, over Cambridge of Weston.

The Green and White suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of a powerful Lancaster team, 77-30. While trying to get back on its feet, the team lost its second game to Hamilton, 53-27. The last game of the season was a loss to Essex Aggie, 27-0.

Although the Story Six lacked depth this year, they can look forward to a more successful season in 1959. Most of the team will be back next year with the poise, confidence, and experience needed to win.

Cushman Clapp has ball, will travel.

Bill Laskowski in the clear and off to score.

Players Gain Valuable Experience On Court

As the Story goes to press the team is midway through the season. Although the team has lost all games to date, the boys hope for more success in coming contests.

The team was severely hurt by the loss of eight starters from last year's varsity. This left the varsity with only two players, Captain Bill Laskowski, and Dave Curran, with any previous varsity experience to start the season.

Although the team has yet to win, the boys have shown steady improvement. With the spirited play of some of the younger boys, the team could cause trouble in the League during the second half.

The outcome of next year's season seems to hold a brighter outlook.

Bill Croft prepares for the all-important foul shot.

Starring On The Diamond

A record of three wins and nine losses was the final tally for the 1958 baseball season. While the season was far from a successful one, the fact that the team was young and inexperienced accounted for some of the difficulty. Kerry Crane was the only senior member of the group.

The outlook for next season looks much brighter as the team will be older and more experienced.

The high point of the '58 season was a 13-5 win over Ipswich. Returning pitcher, Tom Carroll, did an outstanding job in this game and all the others.

Congratulations to Mr. Hyland, the teams' untiring coach, who this year completes his 20th year of coaching at Story.

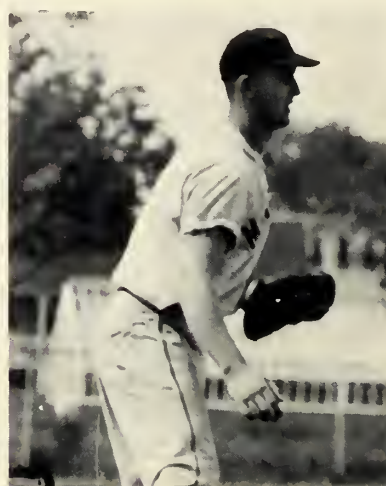

Veteran pitcher, Tom Carroll, winds up for a long one.

Eager Tom Carroll and Dave Curran scramble for the ball.

Phil Tilton anxiously awaits throw as opponent heads for base.

Winning team, the Rockin' Robins.

Girls Participate In Exciting Intramural Basketball Program

November 3 marked the beginning of the 1958-59 season for the girls' intramural basketball program. Teams were chosen with Carol Eyberse, Mary Lane, Louise Brissette, Lynda Forss, Sandra Emerton, and Carol Bullock serving as captains.

Running neck and neck till the very end of the tournament were the JCC's and the Rockin' Robins. In a thrilling final game the Rockin' Robins, captained by Carol Eyberse, won the tournament.

Three individual contests were held at the end of the season with Carol Bullock winning all three.

At the time of this writing the volleyball tournament is just starting. The girls are looking forward to another exciting series.

Ginny Hobbs throws to Carol Eyberse as Doris Latons looks on.

Spectators Cheer As Performance Nears Climax

Critics Proclaim Performance Grand Success!!

As the final curtain falls and the players go their separate ways, they take with them fond memories of cherished friends and a job well done. Many will accept immediate employment. Others will seek to further their education or join the armed forces.

The players hope that some day they will meet again in their new roles to renew acquaintances.

The staff wishes to extend its sincere thanks to the people who have helped to make this book possible.

Doris Latons jumps for joy as the good news is received.
